

Picture Pillow Class Sat. Oct. 5, 10 AM to 3 PM at the Kanabec History Center

The fee is $25.

Class size is 6 to 10 people.

MUST PRE-REGISTER & PRE-PAY

You will make a pillow showing a photograph of your choice. It could be a special occasion, an old family photo, a favorite pet, etc. Bring your photo with you to class. Instructor Barb Wazelle will supply the material used to transfer your photo.

- You should have your photo enlarged to 8"x10" (The newspaper office will do this for a nominal fee.)
- Bring old lace, buttons and men's ties (the old wide ones are best) to embellish your pillow. (Ties will be available at the History Center for 25¢ each.)
- You will need to bring a sewing machine, thread, scissors & pins.
- If you want to use your own fabric, bring it with you.

The instructor will also have fabric and the fiber fill to stuff the pillow, or you can bring a pillow form.

- BRING A BAG LUNCH.

Barb has been sewing for many years and became a quilter when she retired. She has been involved with many crafts, has taught quilting, doll making etc.
